

Priv Device

1. Breach Prevention

Description:

Keeps track of & restricts sketchy data and data that could be used in a breach

Functions:

- information restriction
- advanced password management
- advanced message privacy

2. Preference

Description:

User picks what data to protect

Functions:

- displays informative priv. video during set up
- privacy preference questionnaire for user

3. Restrict

Description:

restricts important data from being sent out and uses an alert notification explaining the risks based on what information you try to expose and where

functions

- location
- full name
- bank information
- important documents (pictures included)
- address

4. Password management

Description:

uses convenient one screen to display all logins with a box under each for the option to change it

functions

- easy password change/save
- password change reminder every 2 months
- strong password suggestion for every change
- view password function with Face ID
- all on one screen convenience

5. Message privacy

Description:

monitors messaging systems & keeps track of the validity & safety of incoming and outgoing messaging functions

- message monitoring
- notification warning explaining why this person or context of the message may be dangerous

6. Protect

Description:

Save users from the stress of data privacy by providing easy & convenient solutions to data of their choosing